Un-Camp West

March 2010

Join Jewish girls, ages 15-18, from all over the country

Acclaimed educator, Rabbi Manis Friedman & a team of spirited counselors

Bais Chana is an open-minded, open-forum learning program where teen girls, ages 15-18, can explore their Judaism, expand their minds and connect with other cool Jewish teens. Did we mention you'll have fun?

This year's Un-Camp West features unconventional Jewish learning (leave your preconceptions home), a music workshop with some of the weirdest instruments you've ever seen, a ropes course to stretch your abilities, breathtaking hiking and an art workshop for people with two left hands.

Where You'll Stay and What to Bring

Running Springs is a 70-acre campus within a scenic forest covering more than 671,000 acres. The campground is situated between the resort areas of Big Bear and Lake Arrowhead, just 80 miles from Los Angeles and 40 miles from Ontario International airport.

Accommodations are dormitory-style so make sure to bring sheets and towels; toiletries; nice clothes for Shabbat and comfortable clothes for the ropes course; a camera; a smock or old shirt.

Cost

Application Fee: $50 (must be paid when your online application is submitted)

Program Fee: $360 for one; or $340 each for sisters or friends who register together

If you're applying for a scholarship, submit your Scholarship Application by Feb 19, 2009. Check your eligibility here.
